WEST YORKSHIRE ENTREPRENEUR GROWS WITH HENTONS SUPPORT

A successful bar and nightclub brand is continuing to expand across the region after opening new premises in Bingley.

Mavericks, which already has 80s-themed sites in Huddersfield and Horsforth, has opened its third establishment on Main Street in Bingley, in the town's former Midland Hotel.

Hentons provided tax and professional advice for the new premises.

Entrepreneur Khoa Van who is in charge of Mavericks acquisitions and new business has also helped secure backing from national pub company Greene King to expand the brand to more sites in Yorkshire – with the eventual aim of establishing a national franchise.

Khoa Van of Mavericks commented: "This is an exciting time in the development of the Mavericks brand and we are proud to have secured our third outlet in Bingley in five years of operation. We have big plans for the future development of the brand and hope to continue with a successful rollout of our popular drink, dine and dance concept. Hentons provided first class advice throughout the transaction and operated as if they were part of the Mavericks team."

The venues are popular not just with Mavericks core target audience of over 25s but also with 18 to 25-year-old customers.

Simon Gray, a partner at Hentons, said: "Mavericks is a great business with big plans for future expansion, managed by an ambitious and very entrepreneurial team. I'm sure that the opening of the newest outlet in Bingley will be a huge success and pave the way for future establishments."
