

BRIGHT IDEAS FOR SAVING POUNDS

IT'S FINALLY HERE... THE POST-BREXIT AUTUMN STATEMENT WE HAVE ALL BEEN WAITING FOR!

Philip Hammond will be delivering his first Autumn Statement this week. There has been much speculation in the press about what we will see from the new Chancellor following Brexit, but what are the experts hoping to see?

Ahead of the Statement Simon Gray, a Tax Partner at Hentons, said:

“The new chancellor has a balancing act to strike in the forthcoming budget. Our clients are calling for stability to support current trading and investment in future growth. Equally, as the economy faces pressure a result of Brexit, there are some steps that can be taken to alleviate pressure on businesses.

“An extension of the NIC ‘holiday’ for payroll taxes would be welcome, along with a hold on any increases in dividend tax, property taxes and any further tinkering with pension tax changes. We also wait to see if the Northern Powerhouse will survive the departure of George Osborne.”

Simon will be presenting on the impacts of the Statement during a Special Breakfast Seminar at our offices in Leeds on Thursday 24 November. For more information or to reserve your place please see our website www.hentons.com/events
